Justice U.C.Dhyani (Oral)

1. By means of present claim petition, the petitioner sought a direction to respondents to consider the case of the petitioner for reappointment keeping in view his seniority and experience along with all consequential benefits. Besides the same, a direction has also been sought to quash the impugned orders dated 30.09.2015 and 23.09.2015, whereby Respondent No.4 was given reappointment on the post of Coordinator in Department of Medical, Health and Family Welfare.

2. Both the petitioner and Respondent No.4, had attained at the age of superannuation, when claim petition was filed. Respondent No.4 was, therefore, given reappointment for one year. An extension of one year, was given to Respondent No.4, which term has also expired. Respondent No.4 is, therefore, not in any employment in the Government, at present.
3. It is the submission of Ld. Counsel for Respondents that present claim petition has rendered innocuous.
4. Ld. Counsel appearing in brief of Sri M.C.Pant, Ld. Counsel for the petitioner, agrees that, cause of action no more survives to the petitioner.
5. This Court records aforesaid submissions of Ld. Counsel for the parties and closes present claim petition.
