Sri V.P.Devrani,. A.P.O., for Respondents.

(through audio conferencing).

Heard Sri Sanjay Raturi, Ld. Counsel for the petitioner, on his application, which has been moved through Email, in the Principal Bench of the Tribunal.

In response to a query of the Bench, Ld. Counsel for the petitioner submitted that the claim petition No. 49/NB/DB/2019 is admittedly pending before Nainital Bench of this Tribunal. He also submitted that the stay application was filed in the said claim petition, which could not be disposed of due to lockdown on account of pandemic COVID 19. At present only Single Bench of the Tribunal is functioning at Nainital. The matter in hand is cognizable by the Division Bench.

Urgency application is, therefore, disposed of by directing that the claim petition with stay application be listed before the Division Bench comprising of Ld. Vice Chairman (J) and Ld. Member (A), when the same is earliest available at Nainital.

Let this order be uploaded on Website of the Tribunal
